"It's Time For Moving On"

We've travelled a long time together,
And there have been a lot of good things on the way.
But now, it's almost time for leavin',
And the things I feel inside are very hard to say.
But it's time for moving on, my friend; hold back all the tears and sorrow.

It fin'ly is time to go our sep'rate ways.
And I want to wish you well, my friend.
As we search for new tomorrows,
Go as you must but please, don't forget the yesterdays.

Remember the dreams we dreamed together,
All the joys we shared in getting to today.
Now, just one time before you leave me,
Reach out and take my hand and help me
walk away.

For it's time for moving on but don't forget the yesterdays.

PEOPLE FROM AROUND THE WORLD

"Hei, minum nimeni on Mirja ja tulen Suomesta." ("Hello, my name is Mirja and I come from Finland.") Generally I would say that I have had a good time and things have been just as I expected. I wish to travel more and to get to know more people. Sometimes I do get homesick but I love challenges and now I have a chance to show my independence. I'm glad to return to Finland. However, I'd like to come back sometime, to see many places that I now am not able to see. Perhaps I will come back to S.C. one day, see teachers and the new exchange students and maybe some of the new people I've met this year. Certainly, I will visit my host-family! I think I'll miss this place, at least a little bit, when I go to my home country all by myself.

¡ Hola! Mi nombre is Mauro Zabala y vengo de Quito-Ecuador." In the beginning the English was very hard for me because I didn't understand much and the people didn't understand me either. I didn't have too much time to think of my family and friends in Ecuador because I was so excited and curious about everything. The first thing that is different to me is to go to a school of boys and girls, which seems to be more fun. Another difference is that I come from a city of about one million and this town has about three thousand. Also I like the snow. In my country we have snow only in the mountains which are really high and deep I really enjoyed this year and I don't want to say good-bye so I'll say "See you later".

"Hej, nit navn er Gitte Knoop, og jeg kommer fra Danmark." ("Hello, my name is Gitte Knoop and I come from Denmark.") So far I have been able to build an impression of America, especially Delaware. Of couse, it is different from my country but I think it is a great experience to live under other conditions, and I know later I will bring good memories back to Denmark. Till now I have been able to go to Washington D.C., Maryland, Philadelphia, and I plan in April to go to FLorida with my organization, A.S.S.E. I think it is very important to see other places than only the one you live in and I hope I will be able to. I am happy to be here in Georgetown and enjoy my stay very much.

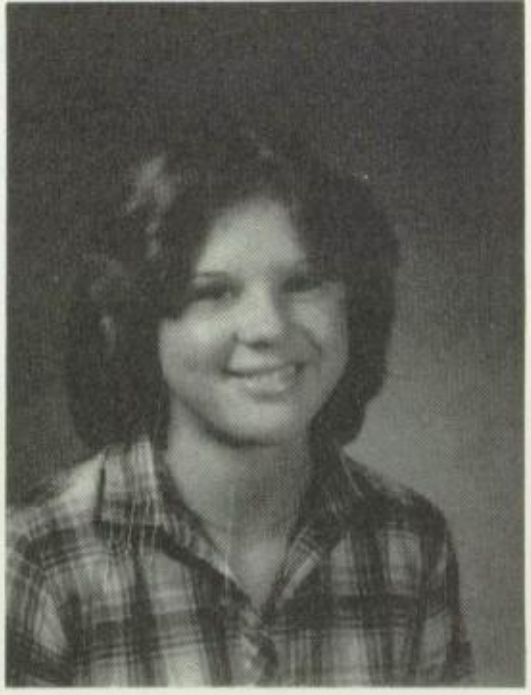
"ROCKY"
BATCHELOR



IN

This yearbook is dedicated to two very special people, Doug Ridgeway and Lisa Batchelor. We will always think of them as still being here.

And even though they are gone, their memories will always live on.

MEMORY

DOUG RIDGEWAY

You are not alive and with us now, yet in another sense you still live on, inside the many friends who love you; you would be proud they've been so strong.

You both touched so many lives in what seems such a short number of days.

And until the time when we meet again, this yearbook is just a temporary way to say,

Thank you both
from the class of '83.

VO-TECH

Vo-Tech is a special place for special students with career goals already in mind. Besides their half a day of regular school activities, these students spend half a day working to achieve various skills in their chosen shops. No special requirements are set on students wishing to attend Vo-Tech. Only the desire to get a head start on a chosen career is needed. Some students are even offered the chance to receive on the job training in their specific field of interest . . .

The 1982 Golden Knights football squad surprised the Henlopen Conference by finishing 7-3 with only three lettermen returning from their previous year. All three losses were closely contested.

The Knights defeated arch-rival Indian River, 16-8, in the season opener and blasted Seaford, 26-0, to give the Blue Jays their only regular season defeat in two years.

Senior Sam Dennis was voted to first team All-Conference and second team All-State at defensive tackle. Senior Jamie Rogers received the same recognition at defensive back.

Captain and linebacker Jesse Atkinson was named to the second team on both All-Star selections. Quarterback John Young received honorable mention on both teams.

Junior Billy Savage was named to the second team All-State squad as an end.

Other Senior starters who graduated were offensive guard Mike Orendorf, defensive back Joe Hall, halfback Pete Rowley, defensive lineman Craig Ricketts and linebacker Mark Reid.

12—3—1

The 1982-83 hockey team had an outstanding season finishing with a record of 12—3—1. The team's conference record was 9—1—1 which tied them for first place in the Northern Division of the Henlopen Conference. In the first round of the State Tournament the Knights defeated previously unbeaten William Penn 1-0. In the state semi-finals, the Knights met Cape Henlopen in the most exciting game of the year. After two overtime periods the game was decided in the second set of penalty flicks with the game going to Cape 2-1. The Knights were led by co-captains Traci Tipton and Wanda Hutchins, who also led the team in scoring with 29 goals. Outstanding Seniors include Rae Ann Barkauskie, Jane Davis, Jackie Cottman, Colleen Hosse, Chanett Hayes, Carolyn Morgan, Veronica White, and Kelly Pettyjohn.

The soccer team had its most successful season in the school's history this past year with a 6-6-2 record. First year coach Woody Long was very proud of the team, as they started off the season 0-4 and fought back with heart and guts to finish the rest of the way with the best record in the conference with a 6-6-2 record. He had high praise for the defense, as they were the lowest, scored upon team in the conference. Consisting of John Wyatt goalie, Don Duperron, Mark Davidson and Joe LaPiere fullbacks. On offense Stan DeCelles and Marshall Warrington led the way.

The 1982 Cross-Country Team had a very rewarding year with a 500. winning record of 4-4. This was achieved despite throwing off an experienced veteran runner. Overcoming adversity, the inexperienced squad worked extremely hard to finish 4th in the Henlopen Conference. Randy Jones became a standout runner and finished as an All-Conference.

The Sussex Central Varsity Basketball team following the loss of it's first 5 games, came on to win 10 of it's last 14 games and earned a birth in this year's State Tournament. DeRoin Pritchett and Vincent Wise co-captains, led the team in offense and defense. Joe Hall, Randy Jones, and Tom Tipton handled the rebounding efforts, while Marvin Snead did an outstanding job as a playmaker. Craig Fosque and Ryan Pritchett supplied back-up power for the Knights.

This years Boys Tennis team was a young one. With only two returning Seniors, John Mitchell and Kevin Smith, we knew we had to work hard. Coach Kelso feels that next year will be a better one. The high points was when they beat IR 3-2, and when Robert Barba and Bruce Downs made a very impressive showing in the conference championships. SC has two returning single players, Bruce Downes and Robert Barba and they have three returning double players, Scott Swingle, Brooks Long and Andy Hosse. The 82-83 season looks to be a promising one for the knights.

The girls' tennis team's record was 2-6 in the 1981-1982 season. The Co-captains were Maria "Masher" Reybrock and Cindy "Fearless" Foskey. Even though we did have a losing record, we were only 4 sets away from a 500 season. More importantly, the girls had a good time and were always good sports—even in defeat.

This Year the 1982 SC Football Cheerleaders enjoyed one of the most memorable seasons ever. Although the football games began in Sept., the cheerleaders seasons began last May after tryouts. Camp was a rough and rugged experience this year, but the skill and the technique that was learned was by far awesome; hence, a more power cheerleading squad was born. The spirit continued throughout the whole season whether we won or lost. Finally the cheerleaders entered into a competition at U of D in Nov. and although we didn't bring back a group trophy, no one shall ever forget that magnificent display of teamwork and that AWESOME pompon routine. Thank You, SC Football Cheerleaders, for the best season ever.

When you go into the gym for a wrestling match, you always see the mats laid out, and mopped down, but no one ever thinks about who went to all the trouble to get everything ready. The wrestling Bunnies are the ones that give their time to get the match started. There is a lot of hard work involved in being a Wrestling Bunnie, but it is also a lot of fun.

CHEERLEADERS

What does being a SC Basketball Cheerleader really mean? It means dedication, talent and a lot of spirit. Many students seem to believe that cheerleading is nothing but glamour. Any truly dedicated cheerleader can only disagree with that statement. Being a Basketball Cheerleader means practice after shcool, stunts, injuries, away games, little disagreements through the season, and new friends. The one satisfaction that our SC cheerleaders get is knowing that they are supporting the team and trying th help lead them to victory.

The SC Wrestling Cheerleaders of 1983 were like no other cheerleaders in the conference. They displayed a type of feeling for all the wrestlers that was definitely unique. Their support was genuine throughout the whole season. Who could ever forget such a dynamic cheerleading squad. Before each match the cheerleaders performed spectacular cheers and breathtaking stunts—one being the "Eiffel Tower" which was three people high! Then they welcomed the wrestlers out on the mat to cheer each of them on to victory.

MAKE-UP
allison donohue, joan marvel, jamie truitt, pam long, elaine smith, kim hudson, lauren layton, cindy crevison

Once again this year, the lights dimmed in the auditorium, a hush came over the audience, and the overture began. No one knew exactly what to expect from a district musical, but reports had said that it would be spectacular. The reports were right. Li'l Abner was a huge success. Scott Hook and Sharon Lort wowed audiences as Abner and Daisey. Stan "Marryin' Sam" Blessing expressed a side of his personality rarely seen, as did Mike "Pappy Yokum" Arthur and Kathy "Mammy Yokum" Simmons who stole the show. Don Biller and Mike Rust epitomized the true evilness of General Bullmoose and Evil Eye Fleagle. And, of course, Jennifer "Appassionata" Graves and Veronica "Stuptifing Jones" Oliphant totally "Stuptified" audiences with their outstanding Aphrodite-like qualities. Steve Smyk gave a fantastic performance as the dirty but lovable wrestler, Earthquake McGoon. Greg Outten captured the true stereotypical image of a congressman. Central never before knew that there were such Adonises in the stucent body as the five guinea pig husbands with their wives lusting for muscles after them. The scientist scene was excellent with the brillant vocals of John Clifton, Claudius Bowden, and David Stokes. With everyone's help Dogpatch really came to life. Very special thanks to Mrs. Kaus, our director, Carolyn Morgan, our student director, and Mr. Eckerd for pulling all of the actors and crew together and making this show so awesome. You really broke a leg!

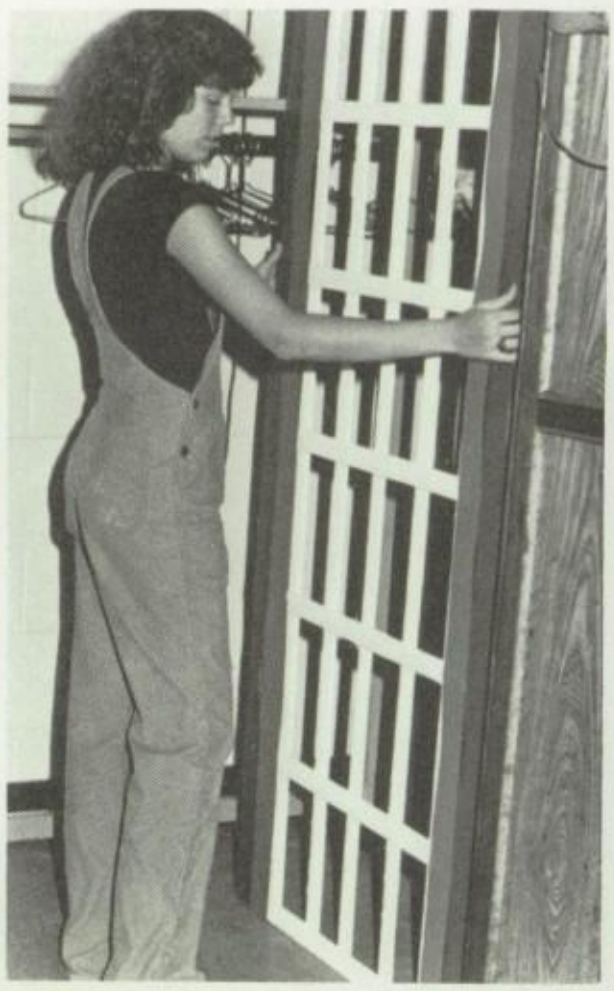
1982 JUNIOR—SENIOR PROM

Here we are; the dance can start!



Get it right Corinna.

Carolyn Morgan—come on down!

"Mouth to mouth," saves lives . . .

Hello there—my little chickadee.

We should do this more often.

This is gonna be fun!

Look deep into my eyes . . .

"FEELS SO RIGHT"

Our prom took place May 7, 1982 at the Millsboro Civic Center. This was the first prom to be held outside of school grounds and resulted in a complete success. Entertainment was provided by, "Mere Image." Our photographers were from the Steve Theis Studio. A special thanks goes out to all the teachers and parents who chaperoned and all those who helped to make our prom the success it was.

Leslie Betts, advisor

Producing a yearbook is a tremendous undertaking. The staff spends long hours laying out every page, typing each word you read and handing them in on the deadline. There are many obstacles to overcome: trying to "make do" with the pictures, meeting deadlines, agreeing on the way to do things, being different and trying to please everyone. But, when it's all said and done—here it is and now it's "TIME FOR MOVIN' ON"—Mrs. Betts

The yearbook is a reflection of a period of our lives which we can look back on with fond memories. I am pleased to have played a small part in the production of our last two yearbooks. Being on the yearbook staff has made my high school years more enjoyable because I've not only had the opportunity to be a part of a small operation where meeting deadline and holding various positions are important, but also the opportunity of being associated with fine staff members and advisors.—Veronica White

Student Council

The Sussex Central Senior High Student Council consists of a group of dependable and hardworking young adults. This group may be referred to as the government of our school. This year we have succeed in various activities. Our Student Council managed to get together over the summer and the beginning of this year and change our constitution. The change was one to better our school. Student Council does various activities throughout the school year such as dances, homecoming, selling carnations, and running the concession stand at home football games. We also are in charge of Honor pass and Senior release lunches. Good Luck next year.

The Forensic Team

Members in alphabetical order: D. Bloodsworth, K. Campbell, R. Pepper, V. White, Advisor: Mrs. Hewitt.

Organized in March, 1980, the Sussex Central Forensic Team is one of eight teams that make up the Delaware Forensic League. Workshops and tournaments sponsored by the League provide opportunities for teams to practice and compete in extemporaneous and impromptu speaking, interpretation of literary works and persuasive and informative talks. Affiliation with the National Forensic League (NFL) provides another important forum. Individual team members have been involved in organization sponsored speaking contests and have won state honors, Veronica White in the American Oratorical Contest and David Bloodsworth the VFW "I Speak for Democracy" contest.

Dungeons and Dragons

Advanced Dungeons and Dragons is a world. Of course this world is not complete. It needs organizers and adventures to order and explore it. Swords and sorcery best describes what this game is all about, for those are the two key fantasy ingredients. Advanced D&D is a fantasy game of role playing which relies upon the imagination of participants, for it is certainly make-believe, yet it is so interesting, so challenging, so mind-unleashing, that it comes near reality. This is the realm of the Dragonslayers.
